Edward Lee Jones was born December 14, 1953, to the union of the late James Jones and Willa Dean Woodson Jones in Adairville, Kentucky. He departed this life on April 19, 2022, in Nashville, Tennessee. He accepted Christ as his personal Savior at an early age. He was a member of the Community Baptist Church for many years, where he was a member of the choir and deacon board. His pastor was Rev. Billy Townsend.

Edward attended the Logan County public school system and graduated from Adairville High School. On February 9, 1980, Edward was united in Holy Matrimony to Elizabeth Ann Hyde. He was a very devoted, husband, father and grandfather.

Edward was affectionately known as "Fido" to all his family and friends. He was very quiet, loved sports and going fishing with his friends and riding with his dog Cee-Cee. He also loved listening to recordings of Al Green.

He was employed by Unarco Materials Inc. for many years.

He is preceded in death by his wife, Elizabeth Hyde Jones; brother: Elvis Jones and son, Marcellus Jackson.

Edward leaves to cherish his memories; sons: Verdell Brooks, Adrian Jones; daughter: Mye'sha Jones; grandchildren: Kandra (Taylor) Jackson, Montreal Brooks, De'Mesha Johnson, De'Seandre Jackson, and Day'Shanel Parker and a host of great-grandchildren; sister; Sandra (Freddie) Bigbee; sisters-in-law: Mary G. Barbee, Barbara (Timothy) Jamison; brothers-in-law: Michael (Patricia) Gray, David (Jennette) Hyde, Clifford Hyde, Harold (Felecia) Hyde and Terry Shannon; devoted aunt: Mary Jean (Charles) Trowell; devoted nieces: Latonia Miles, Sabrina Barbee, Stella Northington, and Cassandra Bigbee; host of nieces and nephews, cousins and friends.
