AARRANGEMENTS: VISITATION WITH THE FAMILY, SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 24, 2024, 2:30-3:30 PM WITH CELEBRATION OF LIFE MEMORIAL SERVICE AT 3:30 PM AT CITY OF FAITH CHURCH, 1001 GOLDCREST DRIVE, SPRINGFIELD, TENNESSEE 37172

George Morgan Bell was called to his eternal home on November 11, 2024, at the home where he resided in Stone Mountain, Georgia. He was born January 15, 1957, to the late Reuben O. Bell and the late Vernita Swann Bell.

George received his education in the Robertson County School System, graduating from Springfield High School with the Class of 1976 where he was a valuable member of the Springfield Yellow Jackets Basketball team. His height and ability allowed him to land a mean basketball dunk. That is how he got the nickname "6' 2" and later "Deuce."

He professed a hope in Christ at an early age at Greater South Baptist Church under the pastorate of Reverend W. D. Crowder. Later in life he rededicated his life to Christ at City of Faith Church before moving to Georgia.

George was on a musical mission in life. He loved playing his percussions, dancing and singing. He would spread music harmony and joy wherever he lived. It was his joy to show his passion of playing for the Lord and the congregation at Greater Faith when visiting home. George was recognized by several radio personalities throughout Atlanta and was making positive strides before his health began to fail.

George was a son, brother, father, grandfather, uncle, cousin and friend. He had a loving personality and will always be remembered for his affection, and willingness to help and love for others. He never met a stranger.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his brother, Reuben Bell.

He leaves to cherish precious memories: daughter, Onisha Turner of Nashville, TN; son, Terrance Bell of Nashville, TN; three grandchildren, Johnathon Newson, Johntay Newson, and J'oni Turner all of Nashville, TN; two sisters, Verlinda Bell, and Teresa (Willie) Wilson; brother, Gary Bell, Nashville, TN; two nieces, Erica West of Batesburg, SC, and LaKrisha West of Ridge Springs, SC; great-niece, Destiny West; great-nephew, Kingston West; one aunt, Elaine Swann; devoted cousins, Peggy Gardner, and George Edward Strain; host of other cousins, relatives and friends.
