Martha Mai Dickerson was born January 17, 1943 to the late William and Dorothy Poindexter, in Springfield, Tennessee. She departed to her heavenly home on Saturday, September 25, 2021. Her smile and personality will be greatly missed.

Mai, as she was fondly known, was educated in the Robertson County School System. She graduated from Bransford High School, Class of 1960.

She had a successful career as a beautician, as well as maintaining a position at Oscar Myers from which she retired.

She was a devoted member of St. John AME Church.

Mai is preceded in death by her parents; her husband, Andrew Dickerson; brother, James "Sim" Poindexter; sister, Brenda "Brent" Poindexter, and daughter, Mia Shaw.

She leaves to cherish her memories: daughter, Carmen (Robert) Sikofa; grandchildren, Natasha Dickerson, Andreus Dickerson, Calvin Shaw Jr., and Calvonta Shaw; great-grandchildren, Jamari Dickerson, Aayden Dickerson, Sabir Williams, Jr.; and Royal Williams; son-in-law, Reverend Calvin Shaw, Sr.; sisters, Berthina (Willie) Holt, Estella Jean Pettis, Jackie (Dennis) Barbee, and Barbara (Ronnie) Martin; two sisters-in-law, Mary (Tim) Martin and Shirley Dickerson; a host of nieces, nephews, friends, acquaintances; dedicated friends, Paula Payne, Anna Chatman and Tavie Ellis; other family and friends
