Rhulette Delores Ann Hyde, known as "Lois" to her family, and "Nana" to her grandchildren, was born October 11, 1957 to the late RoseMary Hyde and Robert William Hyde. She was the fourth of ten children. She was also preceded in death by her two brothers, Dennis Hyde and Darryl Payne.

Lois was reared in Springfield, Tennessee where she attended Robertson County Schools, graduating from Springfield High School, Class of 1976. After graduation she took time to raise her daughters. She was later employed with Springfield Cleaners for fourteen years.

Lois dedicated her life to the Lord at a young age and was a lifelong member of Greater Whites Chapel C.M.E. Church. Lois was a faithful member, and she was truly committed to God and her church, serving as a Stewardess and Usher, welcoming all who come to worship the Lord. Lois was one who truly loved God. She believed that without God, she could do nothing, and like her favorite song, "That King Jesus Will Roll All Burdens Away."

When Lois' health was good, she loved caring for her children and grandchildren, her friends and neighbors and anyone she could help. Lois loved to clean, and boy could she clean. She loved family gatherings, listening to her gospel music, reading her Bible, praising the Lord and calling her brothers and sisters just to see how they were feeling, not only when she was well, but she did these things after her health declined.
